

their mistakes almost as dearly as Harry and the girl have done for their sins.

That is one of the tragedies of life.

We must always pay for mistakes—and we make them nearly every waking hour.

(To Be Continued Tomorrow.)

WHOOPS! NEW TROUSERETTE ARRIVES

Claribel Kirby and Her Recent Invention—the Trouserettes. She Says They Are More Modest Than the Split Skirt.

San Francisco, Cal.—“I believe in dress reform.

“I believe in feminine modesty.

“I believe the reform should begin at the ankles.

“I believe that trouserettes are more modest than the slit skirt—and more catching—or—er fetching, I should say.”

These are the views of the champion of a new dress reform. And the reformer practices what she preaches by parading her opinions in public. The fair reformer is Claribel Kirby, creator, defender and wearer of the newest of the new gowns—the trouserette.

The trouserette is plural, you stu-